

THE DAILY COMMONWEALTH.

FRANKFORT, SATURDAY, FEB. 12, 1848.

KENTUCKY LEGISLATURE.

IN SENATE.

FRIDAY, Feb. 11, 1848.

The Senate was opened with prayer by the Rev. Mr. KEENE of Louisville.

A message from the House, by the Clerk, announcing the passage of certain bills, &c.

Petitions.

Mr. GREY presented the petition of sundry citizens of Christian county, praying a change of the time for holding their Circuit Court. He took occasion on presenting the petition to repel as he said, the insinuation that had been made, that the move was gotten up by the lawyers of Hopkinsville for the purpose of getting clear of other lawyers, and whilst he was making his remarks he was busily engaged in unrolling his paper, containing the list of signatures, and exhibiting its length to the Senate; appropriately referred.

Mr. HELM presented a petition which was appropriately referred.

Mr. HOBBS presented the memorial of the Louisville City Council, praying amendments to the Louisville and Frankfort Railroad Charter; which was appropriately referred.

Mr. SWOPE, from a select committee, reported a bill to provide for the completion of the works on Licking river; read twice and referred to the Internal Improvement committee.

Mr. J. SPEED SMITH offered the following joint resolutions which, the rule requiring them to lie one day on the table being suspended, were adopted:

Resolved, by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, That Maj. General WINFIELD SCOTT, by a series of glorious victories—unparalleled in the history of war—commencing with the battle of St. Juan de Uloa and terminating with the capture of the capital of the Mexican Empire; by which he has drawn upon himself and his army the admiration of the world, has entitled himself to the thanks and gratitude of the people of Kentucky which are hereby tendered and cordially given.

Resolved, That the people of Kentucky look with pride and exultation upon the patriotic ardor and steady valor of the officers and soldiers, volunteers and regulars, who have given world-wide renown to our national prowess, by the various, successful, uninterrupted and glorious battles from Vera Cruz to the City of Mexico.

Resolved, That the Governor be and he is hereby requested to convey the foregoing resolutions to Maj. Gen. SCOTT, with the request to communicate the same to the army.

The yeas and nays being called on the passage of the resolutions, stood thus:

YEAS—Messrs. Boyd, Bradley, Bramlette, Brien, Crenshaw, Draffin, English, Evans, Fox, Grey, Hambleton, Hawkins, Helm, Henderson, Hobbs, Holloway, James, Marshall, McMillan, McNary, Patterson, Slaughter, J. Speed Smith, Swope, Taylor, Thomas, Thurman, Walker, Wall, White, Williams and Young—32.

Special order of the Day.

This being the day set for the trial of Jno. A. Duff, Surveyor of Perry county, for high crimes and misdemeanor in office, the Senate, at 12 o'clock resolved itself into a and Senator PATTERSON was appointed to inform the House of Representatives that the Senate was now in session as a High Court of Impeachment, and was now ready to proceed with the prosecution against the said Duff.

The court being duly opened by proclamation, the managers on the part of the House of Representatives attended, and by their chairman, Mr. TOWLES, announced to the court that they were then ready to proceed to the discharge of the duties assigned to them by the House of Representatives. The respondent and his counsel (Messrs. Harris, Breck and Harlan) also attended.

The articles of Impeachment were read and the response of the respondent to said articles by the Secretary.

The managers filed their replication to the response, which was read by the Secretary.

On motion of the counsel for the defence a subpoena duces tecum was ordered to be issued to the Clerk of the House of Representatives to appear before the court and bring the original affidavits on file in the House of Representatives, on which the articles of Impeachment were founded.

On motion, the court took a recess until 2 o'clock. EVENING SESSION.

The court being opened by proclamation, the President informed the managers that they might proceed to establish the charges preferred against the accused.

A large number of witnesses were sworn and the investigation commenced. (Our limited space will not admit of giving the articles of Impeachment together with a synopsis of the testimony.)

At 5 o'clock the Court adjourned until to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock.

On motion, the Senate adjourned.

A message from the Senate by Senator PATTERSON, announcing that the Senate had resolved itself into a High Court of Impeachment, for the trial of John A. Duff, and were ready to receive at the Bar of the Senate, the Managers on the part of the House.

Mr. HANSON moved that the House attend the Court in a body; lost.

Orders of the Day.

An act to modify the law of 1833, prohibiting the importation of slaves.

The question being on the adoption of the amendment of Mr. Wintersmith, it was withdrawn.

Mr. JUDD offered an amendment, by way of engrossed ryder, prohibiting the using of imported slaves, for merchandise, &c.

Mr. HUGHES was opposed to the amendment, because it prohibited the sale of slaves even to go out of the State; he was in favor of an amendment prohibiting the sale at any time within three years, after importation, to remain in this State. He hoped the amendment would not be adopted, as a proper one would then be offered.

Mr. McKINNEY moved a call of the roll—eight were absent.

Mr. McKINNEY moved that the absent members be sent for; lost.

The question being on the adoption of the amendment; the yeas and nays being called it was lost, 36 to 56.

Mr. BAILEY then offered to amend, by way of engrossed ryder, making the owners of slaves imported, liable in damages to the person injured, for specific depredations committed by such imported slave or slaves.

The yeas and nays being called on the adoption of the amendment, it was lost; 22 to 71.

Mr. CHILTON then offered to amend, by way of engrossed ryder, prohibiting the sale of slaves imported, at any time within three years after such importation, to remain in this State.

Mr. NEWELL hoped the amendment would be adopted, as it was a sufficient bar against bringing in slaves for merchandise, and that was what the friends of this bill wanted. They only wanted the privilege of importing slaves for their own use, and did not ask it for merchandise. He advocated the amendment and opposed the bill.

Mr. HUGHES agreed with the gentleman from Harrison, (Mr. Newell), that the friends of the bill should vote for the amendment. He did not wish to pass a bill that would open the door for the influx of all the refuse negroes of other States; and neither did any friends of the bill wish it. No man would wish to bring into the State a slave for his own use, that was a cut throat, a barn-burner, &c. No friend of the bill wished to make Kentucky a depot for slaves, they only wanted the right to go to other States if they desired, to purchase slaves for their own use and that only. He would not cast any insinuation of Abolitionism against the opponents of this bill, far be it from him to be guilty of such an act. This amendment threw all the necessary safeguards around the bill, for its opponents even, and it was nothing more than his friends were willing to adopt. All its friends wanted, was to have the liberty to purchase slaves where they could do it to the best advantage, and not be compelled to purchase them of the aristocratic slaveholders of Kentucky. He was in favor of "free trade, and sailor's rights" in this matter at least, although he did not go the entire views of that party.

Mr. WILLIAMS said, different men were calculated for different occupations—some were for farmers, some mechanics, some phrenologists, some dentists—every man should pursue the course he could best make a living out of. Some gentlemen would go to Japan and all over the world, on a little question that was not six inches long. He wanted to have men remember that this State was composed of different kinds of soil. In the interior they could raise stock of the best kind, with much ease; but in the exterior, they had to grasp like drowning men at straws, to get a living. He wanted to tell them, in his left-handed manner, that they had worked themselves almost to their graves, and now they wanted some slaves to wait on them in their old age; they did not want to go and buy a slave out of jail, but they wanted good slaves. He had got slaves, and they loved him better than the members of this House did, he believed, and if slave owners would treat their slaves right, there would be no difficulty, and no room for grumbling. When people live to be old, and their children are all married off, he wanted the right to go to any place he chose, to buy slaves, and not be compelled to come into the interior and pay two prices for one slave. He was opposed to the amendment, for he believed that every man should have the privilege of getting a living as he was a mind to; but he was much in favor of the bill, and hoped it would pass.

The yeas and nays being called on the adoption of the amendment, it was adopted, 79 to 17.

Mr. HAGGARD said he was opposed to the amendment just adopted, although he voted for it. He was satisfied that the friends of the bill had murdered it, by adopting the amendment, and he would move a re-consideration. The friends of the bill had the power in their own hands; they had received no quarter from its enemies, and he hoped that its friends would take it and pass it through as it was originally introduced. He was willing to have the bill fully discussed, and that was his understanding when the previous question was called yesterday, and he was then in favor of suppressing amendments. He hoped the vote just taken would be reconsidered, because the friends had been fighting for the bill for the last ten years, and much time had been consumed in the discussion, and now when it was in their power to pass it, he hoped they would come up and boldly carry it through upon its merits.

He did not accuse the opponents of this bill with being Abolitionists, but he had been informed that the person who introduced the law of 1833, was an Abolitionist. He would go to any length to punish them and ward off their abominable actions and machinations. The law of 1833 was a monopoly for slave owners of Kentucky, and it was made a tool by the Michigan Abolitionists to promulgate their damnable views. Then he hoped the friends would use the power they now had to pass it, and would re-consider the vote just taken, rid it of its killing amendment and then pass the original bill. He now moved a re-consideration of the vote adopting the amendment.

Mr. HARRIS advocated the motion.

Mr. HANSON was surprised to hear the gentleman from Cumberland, (Mr. Haggard), rise up and oppose an amendment just adopted by a vote of 70 in its favor, and for which he had voted. The gentleman from Union, (Mr. Hughes), was an honest man and would, he doubted not, defend the assault made upon his position. The amendment was adopted by the votes and advocated by the friends of the bill, and by none more eloquently and ably than by the gentleman from Union whom he knew to be an honest, candid and thinking man, and he would like to hear from him again.

Mr. HAGGARD withdrew his motion to re-consider.

Mr. DOHONEY moved the previous question. The question being taken "shall the main question be now put?" the yeas and nays being called it was carried, 54 to 41.

The question being on the final passage of the bill; the yeas and nays being demanded the vote stood as follows:

YEAS—Messrs. Abell, Allin, Ballingal, Barlow, Bell, Blanton, Bourland, Bowen, Bowling, Boyd, Bozarth, J. Brown, Carlisle, Chilton, Christopher, Cockrell, Coleman, Conner, Dohoney, Dougherty, Duncan, Eaker, Elliott, Field, Floyd, Gaines, Grubb, Grundy, Haggard, Harrell, Harris, Hatfield, Headley, Hogg, Holmes, Hughes, Johnston, Lightfoot, McReynolds, Bailey, Shawhan, Short, Soery, J. Stevens, Towles, Wall, Warren, D. P. White, Williams, Wilson, Wooley, Wright and A. Young—53.

NAYS—Mr. SPEAKER, Messrs. Askins, Bailey, Beard, Beeler, Berry, Bilderback, Boulware, T. D. Brown, Bullock, Bush, Cavan, Collins, Combs, Clon, Garnett, Grainger, Hamilton, Hanson, Hardy, Ireland, Judd, Kerrick, McKinney, Miller, Moore, Newell, Pearce, Pratt, Price, Quarles, Smith, Speed, J. N. Stephens, Talbott, Taliaferro, Thomas, Turner, M. E. White, Wilkins, Wintersmith, Wood, Wolford and S. Young—44.

Mr. SOREY voting in the affirmative, stated that he was opposed to the amendment but was so much in favor of the bill itself that he felt bound to vote for it, even with the objectionable amendment.

Mr. S. YOUNG voting in the negative, stated his reasons to be, that he came here in favor of a modification of the law of '33, but upon mature reflection with an eye to the near and certain approximation of a Convention, he had determined to vote against this bill, believing that the Convention would establish a firm and undisputed ground upon this great subject.

Mr. WOLFORD moved that the House do now, (half past two,) adjourn. The yeas and nays being called it was carried, 48 to 46.

WHIG MEETING IN SPENCER.

At a meeting of the Whigs of Spencer county, held at the Court House, in Taylorsville, on Monday, the 7th day of February 1848, JOHN COCHRAN, Esq., was called to the Chair and THEODORE L. BURNETT appointed Secretary of the meeting.

On motion, the Chairman appointed Mark E. Huston, Robert Stone, Thos. Newman, Adam Carithers, James Gibbert, David E. Harcourt, Wm. Hopewell, John B. McGee and Horatio Day, as a committee to draft resolutions expressive of the sentiments of the meeting, and select delegates to meet in Convention in Frankfort, on the 22d of February, 1848, and report immediately. The committee retired, and in a few moments returned and reported the following resolutions:

WHEREAS, There is to convene in Frankfort, on the 22d of this month, a Whig Convention for the purpose of nominating candidates to fill the offices of Governor and Lieut. Governor, and we, the Whigs of Spencer county, believing that such a course is well calculated to promote harmony among the Whigs of the State, and to secure an unbroken phalanx at the approaching election; do most cordially unite with our fellow Whigs of other counties, in carrying out this important object: Wherefore,

Resolved, That M. E. Huston, W. Duke, R. Lancaster, Innis Wootton, Wm. B. Morphey, William P. Clark, David Black, Dr. J. D. Beard, J. C. Easton, Saml. Gibbert, H. Matthews, S. B. Kerrick, S. Holsclaw, E. Wigginton, J. Tichenor, James Gibbert, Coleman E. Wells, G. W. Snider, Saml. Linderman, J. Skinner, Col. J. Wakefield, A. Houghlin, Thos. Newman, R. Marshall, Saml. Brown, John B. McGee, J. S. Clark, J. H. Brown, Ralph Brown, Saml. Ruble, E. D. Stone, Wm. Thomas, J. Howard, D. E. Harcourt, A. Harcourt, J. Vandike, J. Wakefield, H. K. Brown, Dr. M. L. Hudson, T. W. Connelly, G. W. Anderson, Thos. Stone, A. Vandye, I. J. Wood, R. Cunningham, J. Hile, A. Caruthers, Josiah Reavor, Thos. Dale, G. Stansbury, Wm. K. Cotton, M. V. Buckney, R. C. Stone, John Cochran, Saml. Marshall, N. Beauchamp, D. R. Coghnan, J. Crutcher, Wm. Johnston, Jos. Stout, John Kestery, Jos. B. Cox, Wm. K. Newgent, Andrew Allen, Benj. Stallard and Alexander L. Beard, be appointed to attend said Convention for the purpose of selecting the most suitable and available candidates for Governor and Lieut. Governor, to be chosen by the people of Kentucky at the next August election.

Resolved, That, although we send our delegates free and untrammelled, entirely relying on their deliberation and choice, we cannot refrain from expressing our preference for that distinguished Whig and statesman, ARCHIBALD DIXON, as the candidate for our next Governor.

The following preamble and resolutions were then presented to the meeting and unanimously adopted: WHEREAS, The wishes of the people of a Republic, when uninfluenced by party considerations, are always sincere and purely for the good of the whole country; and whereas, the choice by the people of the United States, of a President, is a matter of high moment to them; and whereas, it is not only the privilege but the bounden duty of every good citizen to express his views on all proper occasions, and in proper terms, as to the public men and public measures: Therefore,

Resolved, That it is desirable that the next President of the United States be a man of ability, integrity and moderation, and at the same time acceptable to the great body of the people of the Union.

Resolved, That this meeting deplores and disapproves of the excess of party feeling and violence, which has separated the people of the United States, and that they believe that the true interest of the country will be promoted by elevating to the Presidency a man who shall feel himself to be the President of the whole people, and not of a party; who will not be the candidate of any party, nor lend himself to party services, such a man we do most sincerely believe Maj. Gen. ZACHARY TAYLOR to be.

Resolved, That it is the deliberate judgment and opinion of this meeting that the patriotism, ability and moral worth of Gen. ZACHARY TAYLOR, entitles him to the gratitude, confidence and suffrage of the people of the United States, and we take great pleasure in presenting his name to the consideration of his countrymen, as a fit and proper person to fill the office of President of the United States, from the 4th of March, 1849.

Resolved, That the Editors of the Louisville Journal, Frankfort Commonwealth and Lexington Atlas be requested to publish the proceedings of this meeting.

On motion, the meeting adjourned. JOHN COCHRAN, Ch'm. THEODORE L. BURNETT, Sec'y.

WHIG MEETING IN WOODFORD.

A large and respectable meeting of the Whigs of Woodford, was held in Mortonsville on Saturday, the 5th inst., for the purpose of appointing delegates to the State Whig Convention to be held in Frankfort, for the purpose of nominating candidates for Governor and Lieutenant Governor, for the next gubernatorial election. The meeting being called to order, Maj. J. FELIX, was called to the Chair, and Col. J. D. WHITE, chosen Secretary.

The designs of the meeting being then made known by a short, but appropriate speech from the chair, the meeting then proceeded to business; when Dr. J. W. Lane, W. T. Furr, D. Walker, James Carter, and Capt. R. H. Campbell, were appointed a committee to draft resolutions expressive of the designs of the meeting. After an absence of a short time, the committee returned with the following preamble and resolutions, which were unanimously adopted:

As citizens of a free and independent government, we deem it not less our blood-bought privilege, than our indispensable duty, to meet together as Whigs, to consult and devise the best means for sustaining and perpetuating, free and independent, the institutions of our beloved country; and believing it to be the avowed object, the unconquerable design of the Whigs, to carry out these principles; and feeling also, that the present is a time when the united efforts of the Whigs, as a party, are especially called for, in order to carry out their principles—therefore—

1. Be it resolved, That it is the opinion of this meeting, that it is of the highest importance to the people of this Commonwealth, that some good substantial Whig, be called to fill the chair of Chief Magistrate, and also one to fill that of Lieut. Governor of this State. One who understands well the interests, and who is determined to promote the happiness of his fellow-citizens.

2. Resolved, That this meeting would recommend the expressions of the people by precincts, on the choice of candidates to fill all important offices in our government, as the most certain manner of ascertaining the wishes of the party, and as one more highly republican in its form, and of more certainty in its results to the party.

3. Resolved, That it is the opinion of this meeting, that there is no one, perhaps, that could fill said office with more deserved honor, or that merits more the confidence of his fellow-citizens, than Ex-Governor THOMAS METCALFE; and that a ticket of T. METCALFE, for Governor, and JOHN L. HELM, for Lieutenant Governor, would be one of the most acceptable to the people, and serve to unite more fully the strength of the Whig party in this State, than any other.

4. Resolved, That the delegates from this precinct, to the State Whig Convention, to be held in Frankfort, on the 22d of February, be instructed to present the above ticket, for the consideration of the State Convention; whilst at the same time, said delegates are left free and untrammelled, to sustain the nomination of any other candidates, who may, with more certainty, concentrate the strength of the Whig party throughout the State.

5. Resolved, That this meeting recommend Gen. ZACHARY TAYLOR, as a suitable candidate for the office of President of the United States.

6. Resolved, That the following persons be appointed delegates to said convention: J. Carter, Z. Ford, J. Manuel, D. B. Walker, Capt. R. H. Campbell, W. T. Furr, Dr. R. S. Sullivan, Col. J. D. White, Maj. J. Felix, J. Boone, Maj. T. Dean, Maj. M. Furr, Maj. W. Castle, S. Lawrence, Dr. J. W. Lane, A. N. Dale, W. Christopher, J. D. Carpenter, Col. J. N. Mosby, W. Arnold, Jer. Nash, J. Arnold, Capt. A. Ford, Wm. M. Morris, Benj. Wilson, J. Hammon, James Howard, J. Wilson and R. T. Thornton.

7. Resolved, That a copy of the proceedings of this meeting be sent to the editor of the Frankfort Commonwealth, requesting their publication.

At a meeting of the Whigs of Muhlenburg county, Ky., in Greenville, on the 31st day of January, 1848, being Court day, Col. E. J. Wilson was called to the chair, and B. E. Pittman appointed secretary. The chairman explained the object of the meeting to be, to appoint delegates to meet our Whig brethren in Frankfort, on the 22d February, to nominate suitable persons to fill the offices of Governor and Lieut. Governor for said State; and thereupon the following named delegates were proposed by B. E. Pittman, and duly elected, to-wit: Capt. Charles F. Wing, Isaac W. Kinchele, Dr. B. Y. Davis, E. R. Resolved, That HENRY CLAY is the first choice of the Whigs of Muhlenburg county, for President of the United States; and Gen. Z. TAYLOR is their second choice.

On motion, the meeting then adjourned. EDWARD J. WILSON, Ch'm. B. E. PITTMAN, Sec'y.

McCLUNG'S SPEECH, delivered before the Colonization Society, is now ready for delivery at the Counting Room of the Commonwealth Office—Price $3 per hundred.

Mr. JOHN M. HELMS, who has been for some time past engaged as foreman for Mr. Tanner, of the Yeoman, has purchased an interest in the Kentucky Flag, at Maysville. We wish Mr. H. great success in his new location.

The Fremont Court Martial has adjourned sine die. The whole case and the finding are now before the President. Of course the decree of the court martial is not yet publicly known, though it is hinted in several quarters that the Col. has been found guilty of insubordination. It is not believed that the President will approve the finding, as the general impression is that he caused the difficulty himself.

THE WHIGS OF GRAVES COUNTY, met at Maysville, on the 17th ult., and appointed delegates to the gubernatorial Convention. The delegates are left untrammelled, are instructed to vote for the most available men, and the Whigs of the county pledge themselves to stand by the nominees.

The bill modifying the "Negro Law of 1833," as to permit all citizens of the State "to import slaves for their own use," passed the House of Representatives on yesterday, by a vote of 53 yeas to 44 nays. The same bill was rejected by the Senate a few days since by two votes. Changes it is said have taken place in that body, and the final passage of the bill, is looked to as an event by no means improbable!

THE GUBERNATORIAL CONVENTION will assemble in this town, on the 22d inst. It is a matter of the first importance to the success of the party and the triumph of the nominees of that Convention, that there shall be a full attendance and a fair expression of the sentiments of the Whigs of the State. We therefore hope our Whig friends in the different counties will see that their respective counties are well and fully represented. Let us have a good old fashioned Whig gathering—that we may talk together freely of the dangers that now threaten us, and prepare the ground for the great work before us. A large, and harmonious meeting on the 22d, will do more to secure the triumph of the Whig party, than scores of meetings and months of labor after the canvass shall have begun. Let us send our candidates forth with joyous hearts, and an assurance of the cordial and undivided support of the entire party. In great political, as in military movements, there must be union, harmony and concert of action. Let there be no wavering or unsteadiness in the Whig army.

THE HON. BEN. HARDIN, by special invitation of the friends of a Convention, addressed a large and intelligent audience at the Capitol on Thursday evening last, on the all engrossing topic of Constitutional Reform. It was an able and eloquent speech, and a copy has been requested for publication.

Mr. WINTERSMITH, of Hardin, Chairman of the committee on Federal Relations, laid before the House on yesterday, a lengthy and very able report upon the questions involved in the boundary controversy between Kentucky and her sister States bordering on the Ohio river. The report is well written—is prepared with care and labor, and presents in a concise and intelligible form the various questions which have arisen or may arise out of the boundary question. We are gratified to learn, that fifteen hundred extra copies have been ordered for the use of the House of Representatives.

The fine discipline of the 6th Infantry, (TIBBATT'S), is complimented in an order from Gen. Wool. The company of Capt. BRANNAN, formerly of Louisville, is especially mentioned.

THE WHIGS OF McCRACKEN, met at the Court House on the — ult., and appointed delegates to attend the State Convention to be held in this place on the 22d of this month, for the purpose of selecting candidates for Governor and Lieutenant Governor. The delegates are left free to vote for whom they please for either office, "provided they do not vote for any man to fill either of said offices, unless he is known to be the certain and unwavering friend and advocate of a State Convention."

The same meeting, expressed a decided preference for Gen. TAYLOR, as the Whig candidate for the Presidency, and instructed their delegates to use their efforts to secure his nomination in the Whig Convention on the 22d, and also to appoint a suitable electoral ticket.

Capt. HICKEY, formerly Editor of the Vicksburg Sentinel, has been elected to the Texas Senate from the District in which Brasos Santiago is situated.

LETTER FROM GEN. TAYLOR.—The President of the United States, in answer to a resolution introduced into the House of Representatives, by Mr. Duncan, of Kentucky, has communicated to Congress the following letter from Gen. Taylor to Mr. Marcy, in response to a communication from that functionary, dated 27th January, 1847. It will be recollected that some time in the month of December, 1846, a letter appeared in the eastern papers, signed by Gen. Taylor, and which was afterwards understood to have been addressed to Gen. Gaines. The letter was deemed exceptionable by Mr. Polk, and he caused to be published an antiquated and obsolete "regulation," against letters from officers in the army intended for publication. This "order" was communicated to Gen. Taylor, who responded as below. The manly and dignified spirit of the "old Hero," stands out in every word and line of the letter:

HEADQUARTERS, ARMY OF OCCUPATION, }
Aguila Nueva, March, 3, 1847.

SIR: I have had the honor to receive your communication of January 27th, enclosing a newspaper slip, and expressing the regret of the Department that the letter copied in that slip, and which was addressed by myself to Maj. Gen. Gaines, should have been published.

Although your letter does not convey the direct censure of the Department or of the President, yet, when it is taken in connection with the revival of a paragraph in the regulations of 1825, touching the publication of private letters concerning operations in the field, I am not permitted to doubt that I have become the subject of Executive disapprobation. To any expression of it, coming with the authority of the President, I am bound by my duty, and by my respect for his high office, patiently to submit; but, lest my silence should be construed into a tacit admission of the grounds and conclusions set forth in your communication, I deem it a duty which I owe to myself to submit a few remarks in reply. I shall be pardoned for speaking plainly.

In the first place, the published letter bears upon its face the most conclusive evidence that it was intended only for private perusal, and not at all for publication. It was published without my knowledge, and contrary to my wishes. Surely, I need not say that I am not in the habit of writing for the newspapers. The letter was a familiar one, written to an old military friend, with whom I have for many years interchanged opinions on professional subjects. That he should think proper, under any circumstances, to publish it could not have been foreseen by me.

In the absence of proof that the publication was made with my authority or knowledge, I may be permitted to say that the quotation in your letter of the six hundred and fiftieth paragraph of the superseded regulations of 1825, in which the terms "mischievous" and "disgraceful" are employed to characterize certain letters or reports, conveys, though not openly, a measure of rebuke which, to say the least, is rather harsh, and which many may think not warranted by the premises. Again: I have carefully examined the letter in question, and do not admit that it is obnoxious to the objections urged in your communication. I see nothing in it which, under the same circumstances, I would not write again. To suppose that it will give the enemy valuable information, touching our past or prospective line of operations, is to know very little of the Mexican sources of information, or of their extraordinary sagacity and facilities in keeping constantly apprized of our movements.

As to my particular views in regard to the general policy to be pursued towards Mexico, I perceive by the public journals, that they are shared by many distinguished statesmen, and also in part by a conspicuous officer of the navy, the publication of whose opinions is not perhaps obstructed by any regulations of his department. It is difficult, then, to imagine that the diffusion of mine can render any peculiar aid to the enemy, or specially disinclose him "to enter into negotiations for peace."

In conclusion, I would say that it has given me great pain to be brought into the position in which I now find myself with regard to the Department of War and the Government. It has not been of my own seeking. To the extent of my ability, and the means placed at my disposal, I have sought faithfully to serve the country by carrying out the wishes and instructions of the Executive. But it cannot be concealed that since the capitulation of Monterey the confidence of the Department, and I too much fear of the President, has been gradually withdrawn, and my consideration and usefulness correspondingly diminished. The apparent determination of the Department to place me in an attitude antagonistic to the Government has an apt illustration in the well known fable of Esop. But I ask no favor, and I shrink from no responsibility. While entrusted with the command in this quarter, I shall continue to devote all my energies to the public good, looking for my reward to the consciousness of pure motives and the final verdict of impartial history.

I am, sir, very respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
Z. TAYLOR.

Hon. W. L. MARCY,
Secretary of War, Washington.

THE WHIGS OF BOURBON, met at Paris, on Monday, the 7th inst., and appointed delegates to the Gubernatorial Convention.

The following resolution was adopted:
Resolved further, That the delegates now to be appointed be authorized and instructed to vote for two delegates from the State at large to a Whig National Convention; and also to meet delegates in Convention from other counties in this Congressional District to appoint a Representative for it in the said National Convention.

THE ONLY REMEDY FOR HART'S VEGETABLE EXTRACT.

Is an invaluable remedy for Epileptic Fits, or Falling Sickness, Convulsions, Spasms, &c.

It is well known, that from time immemorial, Physicians have pronounced Epileptic Fits incurable. It baffled all their skill, and the boasted power of all medicine, and consequently thousands have suffered through a miserable existence, and at last yielded up their lives on the altar of insanity. Physicians of every age have pronounced this disease incurable. The proprietors of the Vegetable Extract, however, feel no delicacy in saying, that it can be cured. They would, therefore, respectfully invite Physicians and all others who are interested, to examine the testimony which is here offered. If it is deception, let it be exposed; but if it is true, then in the name of humanity, no longer let it be said that Epilepsy is incurable.

HART'S VEGETABLE EXTRACT.

For sixteen years, has been tested by many persons who have suffered with this disease, and in every case where it has had a fair trial, has effected a permanent cure.

Col. Denslow, of Yonkers, New York, states that his daughter has been afflicted with Fits for more than 9 years, and has been cured by the use of the Vegetable Extract.

Mrs. J. Bradley, 115, Orchard street, New York, states that she has been subject to Fits for many years, and has been restored to perfect health (and every other means had failed) by the use of the Vegetable Extract.

Dr. Charles A. Brown, of Dover, Russell Co., Alabama, who is one of the best Physicians in the State, says that he has been much benefited by the use of the Vegetable Extract, and that he unhesitatingly prescribes it in every case of Epilepsy which comes under his knowledge.

Curtis G. Mayberry, Esq., formerly Postmaster at Lime Mills, Crawford Co., Pa., now living in Erie Co., Pa., states that for many years past he has been sorely afflicted with Fits, and he is now happy to state that by a persevering use of Dr. Hart's Vegetable Extract for a few months, has restored him to sound health, being entirely freed from that worst of all diseases.

FITS OF 27 YEARS AND SIX MONTHS CURED BY THE USE OF THIS TRULY WONDERFUL MEDICINE!

Read the following remarkable case of the son of WILLIAM SECORE, Esq., of Philadelphia, afflicted with Epileptic Fits 27 years and 6 months. After traveling through England, Scotland, Germany and France, consulting the most eminent Physicians, and expending for Medicine, medical treatment and advice, three thousand dollars, returned with his son to this country in November last, without receiving any benefit whatever, and was cured by using

HART'S VEGETABLE EXTRACT.

Mr. Wm. SECORE's Letter to Doctors Evans & Hart.—I have spent over three thousand dollars for Medicine and Medical attendance. I was advised to take a tour to Europe, which I did. I first visited England, and then France, and returned home in the month of November last, with my son as far from being cured as when I left. I saw your advertisement in one of the New York papers, and concluded to try Hart's Vegetable Extract, seeing your statements and certificates of cures, some of twenty and thirty years' standing, and can assure you I am not sorry I did so, as by the use of Hart's Vegetable Extract alone, he was restored to perfect health. His reason, which was so far gone as to be almost entirely lost, is entirely restored, and he is now 27 years of age, and 27 years and 6 months of this time has been afflicted with this most dreadful of diseases; but thank God, he is now enjoying good health.

Now, gentlemen, faith without works I don't believe in. To say that I shall be ever grateful to you is one thing, and that I here enclose you one hundred dollars, I have no doubt; but that you will think this matter, and send a different thing. The debt of gratitude I still owe you, but please accept this amount as interest on the debt in advance. Yours, very respectfully,

(Signed) WILLIAM SECORE.

TESTIMONY UPON TESTIMONY.

In reference to the almost miraculous efficacy of this truly wonderful Medicine, read the following letter from Doctor W. L. Monroe, of Guilford, Ohio, one of the most eminent Physicians in that place.

Guilford, Ohio, August 17th, 1846.

Brother laborer in the cause of Humanity:

Dear Sir:—It is with no small degree of pleasure that I am enabled to announce to you the complete triumph of your invaluable medicine in the case of Epilepsy. I have presented it in four instances in this vicinity, and it has been highly successful in all. Three of the patients, I trust, have been radically cured. The fourth one is rapidly improving, and will, I think without doubt, recover. I am not the habit of prescribing or recommending Patent Medicines, but when I see an article which promises so much for the relief of suffering humanity, I feel it my duty to recommend it; and as the habit of prescribing or recommending Patent Medicines is fully acquiesced in by the public, as far as the Faculty are fully acquainted with the real merit of your medicine, they will close their eyes against prejudice and lend you a helping hand.

I enclose myself, yours, sincerely,

(Signed) W. L. MONROE, M.D.

To Dr. S. HART, New York.

Bacon College.

THE Trustees of BACON COLLEGE take pleasure in announcing to the public and patrons, that the sum of $10,000 has been raised, by voluntary subscriptions, to liquidate the debt due by said Institution; that the Institution may now be regarded as free from all its embarrassments, and in possession of property necessary to its usefulness, which has cost, would it not for Northern Bank stock, $2,000 in Road Stock, donated by individuals, and from $7,000 to $8,000 in subscriptions, annually falling due.

They avail themselves of this occasion to tender to the friends and patrons of the Institution their grateful acknowledgments for the timely aid which their liberality and philanthropy have afforded, and which has been the cause of their escape from loss, an institution which has already done much to advance the standard of Literature and Science, and to confer their blessings upon many, some of whose names are meritorious and deserving, but unable, otherwise, to prepare themselves for future usefulness in an elevated sphere.

They take this occasion to say, that the doors of this Institution have never been closed to any individual, on account of their poverty. They sincerely hope that no necessity may ever exist to compel a different course.

As BACON COLLEGE may now be regarded as permanent, we solicit for its aid, and of all its friends, send us your young men, and entrust them to our care. We will do what we can, so to form their characters and cultivate their minds, as to make them obedient, society, a blessing to their parents, and rich legacies to the age in which they may live.

LIFE INSURANCE.

NAUTILUS (MUTUAL LIFE) INSURANCE COMPANY, No. 29, WALL STREET, NEW YORK.

THIS Company, which confines its business exclusively to Life Insurance, has now been in operation two years and has, during which period it has issued 15,300 policies, and for the first eighteen months of its existence, its losses for the whole time have been less than $18,000—leaving an accumulation of about $65,000 on hand, beyond the payment of claims.

This, added to the original guaranty capital of $500,000, places the Company on a basis as solid as any longer to admit of a rational doubt.

All its profits accrue to the credit of the dealers, and are divided annually among them, whether the policy be issued for a limited period or for the whole term of years, its losses in the charter of any other Mutual Life Insurance Company incorporated in this State.

Two dividends of 50 per cent. each, on the amount of premiums received, in accordance with the provisions of the charter, have been declared, and are credited to the accounts of the assured, and for which scrip certificates will be issued.

A dividend of 6 per cent. on the term of year, has likewise been declared, payable in cash, to the holders thereof on demand, at the office of the Company.

Policies granted for the whole term of life, when the premium thereon amounts to $25 a note for 40 per cent with interest at 6 per cent,—without guaranty, may be received in part payment, or it may be paid in cash, in which case it is expected, and intended, to make 13 annual payments, leaving the dividends to accumulate, and the whole term of year, paid for, and the accumulation ultimately added to the policy.

For further information, the public are referred to the pamphlet and forms of proposal, and will be obtained at the office of the Company, or any of its Agents.
